CITIZEN COMMENTS

There were no citizen comments.

Jim O'Connor mentioned a citizen complained the signage on the island at McDonalds and the island at North Mill and Penn Avenue were creating a line of sight issue, Council asked the police department to approach Penn Leather to remove the signs from their current location.

Ellen asked if the treasurers report could be included with the minutes. The minutes have not been updated due to the updating of the website.

Bob Howard offered to provide pictures of Chief Farneski in his full uniform for free.

Ellen reminded Council the importance of Council obtaining National Incident Management Systems (NIMS) training 100, 200, and 700. When Council members obtained a certificate, I copy should be provide to the Borough Office.
